CPPC beats the heat, and beats last year's donation record

The "hot" part of Hot Dog-Ust Day wasn't up for discussion: educated guesses put the temperature at more than 100 degrees on the show field.

The "dog" part was right on, as well: in spite of having 20 fewer cars registered, food sales were down only $14 from last year, so folks were eating.

Yes, we're certain people stayed away because of the heat.

However, 21 club members brought their cars to the show, and 44 members of the community came out for the fun of it.

In the long run, we donated more money, and took home more profit, primarily because of community support. Award sponsorships were at an all-time high, and raffle donations were over the top as well.

We get community support by going out and asking for it, and several CPPC members did impressive jobs of tapping into this community reservoir of good will.

A gallery of photos by Mike Bade and Robin Will are posted on Cascade-PacificPlymouth.org.

There were some great big checks handed over by the time this year's Hot Dog-Ust Day ended, and these particular big checks were only part of the total. $3000 went to the Automotive Technology department for scholarships, and $500 went to the track/cross-country teams who cooked hot dogs, parked cars, and handed out cold water all day.

NEXT CPPC MEETING IS TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 27TH

SHINE UP YOUR CAR AND JOIN US!

GPS accuracy for your old speedo? Our guest speakers know how it's done

Guest speakers at Septembers meeting will be Brian and Pam Induni, whose business, Classic Automotive Innovations offers high-tech products that look like original equipment for classic cars.

Their signature product, Classic Speed®, is able to use GPS technology to drive a car's existing mechanical speedometer.

Come to the meeting and find out how it's done!

Weather is getting chilly – Dimicks remind CPPC about their clothing drive

Jeanette and Bob Dimick have been collecting clothing for homeless centers perpetually for the last several years.

The need never entirely goes away, and it peaks during winter months when warm dry clothing becomes a necessity for folks who live outdoors.

Bring donations of gently-used clothing to club meetings, or look Dimicks up in the CPPC roster and they'll find a way to get your surplus goods to the folks who need them.

Meeting highlights from August

From minutes taken by Jim Wheat

Members of Cascade Pacific Plymouth Club met on August 23rd., 2016 at Clackamas Community Club, 15711 SE 90th Ave., Clackamas, Oregon.

Prior to a short business meeting members and guests of the Club enjoyed a fun social event with music and songs by Tim McCarthy and great food. Special thanks to Phil Lapin and Jean Graham for their help in setting everything up and cooking the hot dogs, also thanks to all the members that brought salads and deserts.

After the dinner Bill Call led the members and guests in the flag salute.

Guests were introduced including, Mike McBride, owner of a 1933 Plymouth, Mel Jones, owner of a 67 Plymouth VIP, and Don and Cindi Norlen. A special welcome to new members Bill and Deborah Cook. Bill and Deborah have a 1949 Plymouth Business Coupe, Special Deluxe.

Jerry Dixon reminded everyone about the two upcoming events in September, Beaches Cruise-in on September 21st., and the Columbia Gorge Interpretive Center Museum, Stevenson, WA., Cruise-In on September 1st.

The next Mayflower outing will be on September 15th., Mt. Angel Oktoberfest, Contact Mindy Benfield or Lorraine Griffey for further details.

Gary Rusher thanked Randy and Pam Ealy for all their exceptional efforts in keeping everything on track for the Hot-dog-ust Cruise-in and making the event a success. Gary presented Randy and Pam with a thank you card and gift from the Club for all their hard work. There were 65 cars at the show, twenty-two of the cars belonged to Club members. The Club presented scholarships in the amount of $3,500 to the Clackamas Community College.

Randy read a letter from David Duthie, President of the Pacific Wonderland Chrysler Club commending the Cascade Pacific Plymouth Club for the success of the Hot-dog-ust Cruise-In and it's efforts in promoting the preservation of Plymouths. Randy gave special thanks to Chuck Willis for his work in organizing, cooking and serving food to all the people attending the show.

Stitch-N-Embroidery, one of the advertisers in the News Letter, donated a blanket with the Club Logo embroidered in the center. It was auctioned off at the meeting, Dolores Call was the successful bidder.

After a short business meeting it was on to game time, Don Hufschmid called the numbers for Bingo. After five rounds, winners included Bruce Kerskake, Chuck Willis, Jerry Dixon, Yvonne Westphal, Judie Byrnes and Cindi Norlen. Cindi and Judie called "Bingo" at the same time and split the winnings. Gary Rusher won the 50/50 drawing. Randy played "Heads or Tails", Steve Herman was the lucky winner.

The Steering Column, A Message from the President

What a fantastic August for the Cascade Plymouth Club. We had a very successful Hot Dog-Ust Day car show even though the hot part was almost too hot. In my younger days I could take the 100 degrees of heat but Saturday my body was asking for a beer bath. We had great support Friday from about 20 club members as we set up for the Saturday show. Thanks to the Wheat's and Lapin's for camping at our site and providing security for our show. We had over 20 member cars at our show and they helped us tear down after the show was completed. Again thank you, thank you, for helping make this show the successful event and as always it is a pleasure working with you guys and gals. We had 65 cars at our show and despite the heat we had all positive comments from the participants. We ended getting every one out by 2:00 PM and everyone was happy for that because of the heat. The club was able to donate $3500.00 in scholarships to the Clackamas Community College Automotive Department and the Track and Field team that helped us park cars and serve lunch. These scholarships provide living wages and fill the needs of the automotive industry that are in need of these tech graduates.

At our August monthly meeting we had over 50 members partake in our potluck dinner. Thanks to Mike and Donna Bade for setting up for the potluck . I know that Donna doesn't read my article I hope Mike will pass along our thanks. Thanks to Tim McCarthy for the musical entertainment and to Stephanie Willis for all the beautiful flower arrangements on our tables. Thanks to Don Hufschmid for the bingo games. I did ask Don for a recall of my bingo card because the only number I got was the free space-Ha Ha.

Jerry Dixon has set the date for the planning of next years' club activities. Hope to see all of you at Elmer's Restaurant December 6th for lunch. Bring your ideas and wishes for what activities you would like to see for next year.

How about an over nighter to the coast. Pam and I were thinking of hosting a wine tasting in and around Dayton. There are about 30 wineries with in 10 miles around Dayton.

Pam and I had a great time at the Mt. Angel Oktoberfest hosted by Mindy and Dave Benfield. Great food and beer, with a lot of vendors to visit.

We hope to have all of the information for our upcoming calendar so that we can have the calendars at our January meeting. Hope to see every one at our next meeting.

Let the good times roll,
Randy

It takes a lot of work to produce an event like the Hot Dog-Ust Day, and year after year, CPPC members demonstrate that they're equal to the task. A committee plans all year for the event, and club members show up and make it happen. Both the organization and the hospitality get compliments from veteran car hobbyists who appreciate the way CPPC treats guests.

Don Hufschmid reminds CPPC members that he is available to help with DMV paperwork. Give him a call if you have a question about your car's documentation.

We will do all we can to help you with your car. NOTE: Keep this List handy for future use.

ABOVE: CPPC'S group at the Show & Shine in Stevenson on September 3, minus the Byrnes, who couldn't be found when we took the picture. RIGHT: Five of the 6 club cars at the event. Herb Watkins' Packard was the sixth.

RIGHT: CPPC members probably remember David Rolin from our own cruise-in: he had the flat-black, lowered Magnum wagon. David also went to the Mopar Summit, on September 17, and supplied this picture of the event, taken through his windshield.

OUT & ABOUT: A friend of CPPC member D. J. Freeman's found this impeccable 1937 Plymouth coupe at the Redmond Swap Meet with a "For Sale" sign in the window, and D.J. shared it with CPPC. "It says, 4000 original miles and $21,750, 541-797-9895." It would be interesting to know how many of these came from the factory outfitted with rumble seats, instead of the more common, enormous business-coupe trunks. We'll gladly forward D. J.'s email to anyone who would like to see the pictures full-size, in color.

MAYFLOWERS

The Mayflowers' entire purpose is to get out and visit interesting people and places in the Pacific Northwest. Everyone is free to join in.

Yamhill County Art Harvest Studio Tour, Friday, October 7

By Mindy Benfield

The Mayflowers will be able to visit the studios of more than 30 artists on a self guided tour of Yamhill County on Friday, October 7.

Tour buttons sell for $8 each.

An organization of artists opened their studios to the public for the first annual Art Harvest Studio Tour in 1993. Since then, thousands of visitors have gone to Yamhill County to meet some of the area's most talented artists.

We can watch demonstrations and purchase their work if we wish.

A sign up sheet and more information will be available at the next CPPC meeting. Contact Mindy Benfield if you have questions.

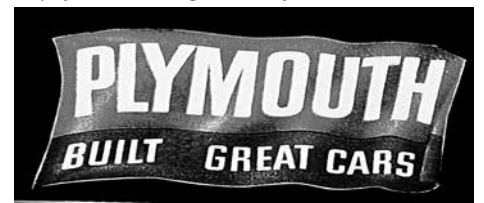

Mayflowers enjoyed Mt. Angel Oktoberfest on September 15

Mayflowers, plus friends, met in Mount Angel on Thursday, September 15th to celebrate Oktoberfest.

This is the 51st year of the festival and it did not disappoint! There were ten of us attending and after we initially gathered and took the shuttle to the festival, we all went our separate ways but managed to meet up occasionally during the afternoon.

Lunch this time was not at a sit down restaurant. Most of us tried several of the different food vendor booths.

There were also plenty of places to shop, and live music and dancing to enjoy. It was a great day!

BODY SHOP & REPAIRS

Gary Rusher reports good news. Vera is now at home, She can get around using a wheel chair or walker. She will continue to improve with concentrated speech therapy, occupational therapy, and physical therapy.

Don Hufschmid recently spent eight days in the hospital. The issue was resolved and he and Lorraine were able to travel to the Pendleton Round-Up.

NUTS & BOLTS: Board meeting highlights

Condensed from minutes taken by Robin Will

The Board of Directors of Cascade Pacific Plymouth Club met on September 13, 2016 at 12:30PM at Bill's Place, 11611 SE 106th, Clackamas, Oregon.

Present were board members Randy Ealy, Dolores Call and Robin Will, plus guests Joanne and Jerry Dixon, Gary Rusher, Chuck Willis, Pam Ealy, and Phil and Jean Lapin.

Minutes of the August 9, 2016 board meeting were approved as published in the newsletter.

Treasurer: Dolores Call reported and included a year-to-date statement. The club is in strong financial condition at the moment. Ask any board member for specifics.

Hot Dog-Ust Day Wrap-Up: Randy presented the semi-final financial document for the club's August 20 event. We finished strong in spite of low attendance due to 100-plus degree heat on the day of the event. Randy specifically called out the generous volunteer turnout on Friday to help with setup, and the large number of members who brought cars to the event. The Clackamas Community College track- and cross-country team drew serious praise, handling the cooking chores, distributing cold water on the show field, and assisting in load-out.

In spite of low numbers of registered cars, the show succeeded because of extraordinary community response. Award sponsorships and raffle donations made the difference, and the members who hustled up those contributions deserve special thanks.

No serious problems were identified, and feedback from participants was good. The one hitch appears to be Porta-Pottis, scheduled for Friday afternoon, but not delivered until Saturday morning. They hadn't been picked up a week after the event despite repeated phone calls. As of the board meeting, the club hasn't been billed for them, either.

Discussion about award sponsorships: we had more awards than we had registered cars this year, so there are trophies left over. Logistically, judging and handing out 60-plus awards takes too long to be practical at the end of a car show. We will limit the number of awards next year, and route sponsorships directly to the scholarship fund.

Venue for next year came up for discussion. The college apparently wants us back, and is willing to find another space for our show if the current field becomes a soccer pitch. A visit to a potential indoor venue in Wilsonville did not live up to expectations, and we can foresee difficulty in allying ourselves/depending upon a single dealership. Consensus was that a close partnership with the college, stronger publicity based on this year's outstanding performance, and a location on campus, will likely to be the better way to go.

Activities: The most recent past activity was the Show & Shine at the Columbia Gorge Interpretive Center on September 3. Six CPPC cars attended, and both of the Tiffanys' cars won trophies.

No Meeting

Several people commented on the quality of the Columbia Gorge Interpretive Center as a regional museum, and Jerry suggested perhaps we should plan a future tour just to visit the museum.

The next club activity is the Beaches Cruise-In on September 21, which usually gets lots of club participation.

In October, Mayflowers plan the Yamhill County Art Harvest Studio Tour on October 7, and CPPC will join the Studebaker Club on their Fall Foliage Tour on October 22.

Jerry confirmed the date for planning next year's activities calendar: a lunch meeting at the Elmers in Clackamas on Tuesday, December 6.

New business: It was pointed out that January 19, 2017 is the deadline for Yellow Book listings for 2017 activities.

The possibility of recognizing a CPPC volunteer of the year was raised and then sidelined after the board started listing individuals and couples who were putting extraordinary work into the club. There were so many, the possibility of a volunteer of the month citation was raised instead. No conclusion was reached, and the board will discuss the matter in further meetings.

Member care: Joanne Dixon reported that Don Hufschmid had been hospitalized, but had recovered sufficiently to go with Lorraine to the Pendleton Round-Up. Vera Rusher is at home after her stroke, making good progress in outpatient rehab.

Tech Committee: Chuck Willis has consulted with both members and non-members on the phone recently, and will schedule house-calls as necessary if his telephone advice doesn't produce desired results.

Newsletter/website: Schedule for posting newsletters on the website was discussed. Current practice is to put them up in batches, once per year. Suggestion was to post newsletters each month as they are completed. Discussion raised the point that if newsletters appear automatically online, it provides less incentive for members to pay dues. There will be no change for the time being.

The meeting was adjourned at 2:30PM.
